

Crewing Software survey

“”

We asked a question why companies are looking for a new crew management software?

Andy Lipsberg, Co-Owner CrewInspector

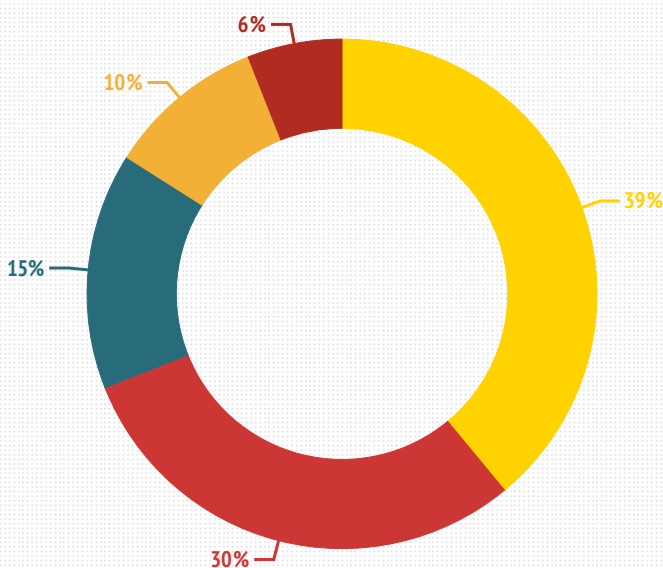

Majority is looking for online crewing software

Seventy percent (70%) having various reasoning revealed they are about to change their crewing software in near future and thirty nine percent (39%) are exclusively looking for online crew management software.

Are about to change crew management software in near future

Want online software

Exporing market

Excel doesn't work

Current software is old

Existing license too expensive